ISAC Educational Seminars (Meeting Room Level)

“Creating of Culture of Excellence and Ethics” - Meeting Room 302-304

Scott Raecker, Executive Director of the Robert D. and Billie Ray Center at Drake University and former member of the Iowa House of Representatives, will share insights and strategies on how to bring ethics to life in our public service. Core values in action are the foundation of day-to-day engagements for public officials – both in elected and non-elected positions. Scott will share his insights on the ever-changing landscape of public service and how ethical leadership can positively impact those we serve. Expect to leave this session with practical leadership insights and concepts that can enhance your leadership.

Speaker: Scott Raecker, Executive Director of the Robert D. and Billie Ray Center, Drake University

“Creating a Culture of Customer Service” - Meeting Room 307-309

Rebecca Luers, Community Development Specialist with Iowa State University Extension and Outreach, will teach attendees what is and how to create a culture of customer service by sharing the two key components of customer service, and the five steps to excellent customer service. She’ll discuss the importance of customer service to your community and your county – getting people to stop, to stay longer, and to return for more, and attracting, retaining, and increasing customers. Front-line employees can become the community’s best ambassadors through effective customer service.

Speaker: Rebecca Luers, Community Development Specialist, Iowa State University Extension and Outreach
