KEYNOTE PRESENTATION

Shot in the Dark: A Cold Case Homicide in the Digital Age

Just a mile from the Pottawattamie County Sheriff's Office in Council Bluffs, Iowa, a woman is shot during a nighttime stroll in a public park. It's the latest in a bizarre series of events, three years into a five-year missing persons investigation. This presentation will cover the thousands of hours of investigative work, dozens of search warrants, hundreds of pages of reports, and, finally, two weeks of testimony necessary to bring a killer to justice after years of digital impersonation in a case of premeditated murder without a body. This case has been featured on Dateline NBC, Oxygen Network's Snapped, Investigation Discovery's True Conviction and Deadly Women, ABC 20/20, and in a book by author Leslie Rule entitled A Tangled Web.

Speakers: Sgt. James Doty, Dep. Ryan Avis, and Special Deputy Anthony Kava, Pottawattamie County Sheriff's Office
