

May 10, 2022

Dickinson County Dickinson County is taking applications for an Assistant Engineer to work out of our Spirit Lake, Iowa office. This position is for an Engineer Intern with the Fundamentals of Engineering exam completed. The position will involve all aspects of highway engineering including the design of roads and bridges as well as overseeing maintenance activities and a staff of 22 employees

Salary: $75,000 - $100,000 depending on qualifications.

Job Summary Under general supervision of the County Engineer, the Assistant County Engineer plans, designs, implements, and administers contracts and construction projects to meet appropriate specifications and to maintain the Secondary Road system.

Public Relations is a critical part of this position in regard to citizen inquiries, requests, and needs. This position shall require feedback and follow up with residents to ensure concerns are accurately addressed.

The position has opportunity for upward mobility to replace the incumbent engineer with 28 years of service. Dickinson County is home to the Iowa Great Lakes region and is a terrific place to live, work and play.

Education, Training, and Experience Guidelines: Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering or related field; experience designing, planning, inspecting, and administering construction and maintenance projects. Completion of the Fundamentals of Engineering exam.

Position open until filled.

Contact Information

Dan Eckert, Dickinson County Engineer

1802 Hill Avenue, suite # 2101

Spirit Lake, Iowa 51360

Ph. 712-336-2944