

Union County Assessor

The Union County Examining Board is seeking applicants for the position of Union County Assessor.

The Union County Assessor serves as the Department Head for the Assessor's Office and leads all appraisal operations and services for property taxation within the County. The Assessor shall establish goals and objectives within the policy directive established by the Iowa Department of Revenue and in accordance with all Federal and State laws. This position shall interpret appraisal and assessment rules and regulations as well as providing oversight for the valuations of real property for tax purposes.

Current salary is $72,888 and comes with a generous benefit package. Future salary increases are negotiable.

Iowa law requires that immediately following the selection of the candidate, the individual shall submit information to the Director of Revenue to conduct a background check. The Director may review records in considering whether to confirm the appointment of the Assessor.
